Extreme Weather – So what does this mean for the kura?

Kia ora e te whanau,

This is a message to confirm Te Kura Rautau will still be open today.

The extreme weather with high winds and heavy rainfall that has started to affect Northland has not eventuated here in our region (Yet). But, this does not mean to say it will not happen.

Some of you may already know that some schools from those Northland areas have decided to close for today.

We will be monitoring and keeping an eye on changes as they happen. If for any reason something extreme was to happen, we will notify you as soon as we can. If you feel the need to keep your child home today, please let us know in advance.

In the meantime, please take precautionary measures and ensure items such as windows and doors are closed properly and light items securely tied down in and around the home.

Ngaa mihi nui ki a koutou katoa
