PĀANUI
Te Wahanga tua tahi mo te wiki tuarua
Tokohia ngā tamariki: 60

2nd May 2023

Kia ora e te whanau,

What a great way to end the short week with a rugby 7's tournament last Friday. We had two teams in and would like to thank all whaanau helpers and providers of transport along with staff. I would like to acknowledge our tamariki especially as they conducted themselves extremely well throughout the day and made sure they looked after themselves and their teammates.

The kura will have its cross-country next Wednesday as tamariki prepare for the Interschools at Rangitoto (next Friday 12th). Practice sessions start as soon as the weather settles and with the tight time frame, we will need to make the most of any fine spells we have.

Last week we advised our whaanau through the paanui that we would be taking our senior classes to Rotorua to support our Iwi (TNN) with a transfer of the 'mauri' for the Iwi Chairs Forum that will be next hosted by Tainui / Maniapoto. The situation has changed due to the venue being extremely small and therefore only a very limited number of students will be able to attend. We will now only be sending a select number to represent our kura.

We have some of our students preparing for the Paakowhai speech competition that will be held in a few weeks' time. Students have selected their topics which is based around Maniapoto. They are required to collate the information and put it into their own words. We are hopeful they do as well as last time as we had great success last year.

Community Notices

Duffy Theatre: On the 16th May 2023, we will have some special visitors at the kura. Whaanau are more than welcome to join us for a special assembly.

Here is a brief of what will be going on...
The James Webb Space Telescope keeps sending its amazing images back to earth and Duffy can't get enough! He is devouring every book about space that he can never really thinking it would be possible to go there at all. Little does he know that he is about to embark on an adventure that will take him to multiple universes in the cosmos with his personal tour guide, himself from a different planet! This year's Duffy show will see Duffy and his alter ego get into all sorts of trouble in outer space and we will see how their love of books and reading helps them find their way home.

Attendance at kura update

Everyday it matters...
Let's have our tamariki at kura every day...
We are now in week 2 of Term 2 with 76% average attendance on Monday... This is an improvement from last week but we still need all our tamariki attending kura.
We are aiming to have our tamariki attending kura regularly with over a 94% attendance.
Thank you for working with us.

Centennial Park School

CODE OF CONDUCT

for Whanau, Parents, Caregivers, Visitors

Centennial Park School is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for students, staff, and visitors.

Our Code of Conduct serves as a reminder to all parents, caregivers, and school visitors that their conduct must support everyone's emotional and physical well-being, and not harm it in any way. The school's board has set this Code of Conduct as a condition of entry.

The Code of Conduct applies:

- to all conduct, speech, and action, and includes emails, texts, phone calls, social media, or other communication
- while on school grounds or at another venue where students and/or staff are assembled for school purposes (such as a camp or sports match).

Standards of conduct

Centennial Park School expects parents, caregivers, and visitors to:

- treat everyone with respect
- work together in partnership with staff for the benefit of students
- respect and adhere to our school values
- set a good example for students at all times
- follow school procedures to handle any complaints
- adhere to school policies and procedures (such as those listed below), and any legal requirements.

Examples of unsuitable conduct include:

- threats, bullying, harassment
- profanity/offensive language
- insulting, abusing, or intimidating behaviour
- discrimination (e.g. based on ethnicity, religion)
- physical aggression
- deception/fraud
- damaging school property
- smoking or possessing or using alcohol/drugs/other harmful substances on school premises or at another venue where students and/or staff are assembled for school purposes (except possession or use of alcohol strictly in accordance with Centennial Park School policy)

- placing unreasonable and excessive expectations on staff time or resources
- pursuing a complaint or campaign, or making defamatory, offensive, or derogatory comments, regarding the school, its board, or any staff or students on social media or other public forums.

Dealing with breaches of the Code of Conduct

How Centennial Park School deals with breaches of our Code of Conduct depends on the nature of the incident and its seriousness, and the process any witness or victim of the behaviour feels most comfortable with. Examples include:

- documenting each instance of behaviour, including the date, time, place, who was present, what was said (verbatim if possible), how any witness or victim felt and/or responded
- holding a meeting with the relevant person, the principal, and/or board chair (or their delegate) or appropriate staff member to discuss the problem and possible resolution
- issuing a warning letter that outlines the problem and required resolution, and reminds them of the possible outcomes of repeated conduct
- arranging a meeting, which may include restorative practices, as an alternative or in addition to the processes above.

Outcomes of breaching the Code of Conduct

If a parent, caregiver, or visitor acts or speaks in a way that contravenes the Code of Conduct, possible outcomes may include:

- The school, through the board, may ask a person to leave the school premises by revoking their permission to be on the school grounds, then asking them to leave under section 3 of the Trespass Act 1980.
- Unacceptable behaviour of a criminal nature may result in the police being informed. For example, under section 139C of the Education Act 1989, it is a criminal offence to assault, abuse, or intimidate a staff member within the presence or hearing of any student while on school premises or in any other place where students are assembled for school purposes. Other instances of criminal offending may occur where drugs are involved, an assault has occurred, or a person persists after being trespassed off school grounds.
- In the case of behaviour amounting to harassment, a restraining order may be sought.
- In some instances, it may be appropriate to refer behaviour to a third party for resolution. For example, a Facebook comment that contravenes this policy may result in a report to Facebook. If unacceptable behaviour occurs at a sports event or sports venue, then it may be appropriate to involve the governing body of that sport, event, or venue.
